A GUIDE TO CREATING YOUR TRAVEL CAPSULE WARDROBE

Written by HER TRAVEL STYLE

Welcome

Why is it beneficial to create and travel with a capsule wardrobe? First, it gives you an opportunity to pack lighter and avoid lugging heavy luggage, paying bag-check fees, and not having what you need when you need it. Second, it's an opportunity to have even better travel photos. Styling your specific pieces to coordinate with each other and the location you're traveling to can make for even more photogenic memories. And third, get the most out of what you've purchased. It's an opportunity to wear items you love more often and with love.

Introduction

CHAPTER ONE

What is a capsule wardrobe?

A collection of clothing that can be put together in a variety of ways and ensures everything you would need to wear for any event/activity is included. The goal is to not have excessive items of clothing.

Your capsule wardrobe will include tops, bottoms, dresses, outerwear, shoes, and accessories that can be easily mixed and matched together.

How to put together a capsule wardrobe

STEP 1:

Determine how many days you are traveling, what you plan to be doing, and what the weather will be.

STEP 2:

Look through what you already own in your closet. Look for what you really love and lean into your personal style.

STEP 3:

Plan to stick with the same color palette and the same aesthetic, ideally to match the look and feel of where you're traveling to. This will improve versatility and make packing accessories much smoother.

STEP 4:

Consider, less is more. If you aren't going to be very sweaty, can you re-wear items? If you will have a lot of beach time, can you pack less beach coverings, but maybe an extra swimsuit (and it takes up less space).

Here's an example for a trip to London in 60°F weather

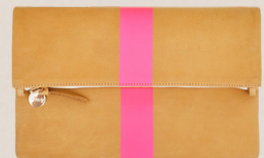

Using the steps above, this trip is going to be classic with a little bit of an edge. The trip is 7 days, with the first and last being travel days. There will be a lot of walking, visiting museums, afternoon tea, and a couple of up-scale dinners. Consider wearing the heaviest shoes on the plane.

CONCLUSION

Congratulations on putting together your capsule wardrobe looks!

If you're a maxamalist traditionally, it may take a little time to get used to, but it's worth the practice.

And if you can incorporate capsule wardrobing into your day-to-day life, it will make planning for your next trip even easier.

There is no right or wrong when doing this so the most important thing is to have and keep up the gratitude and excitement for your trip.

Have fun and feel free to share what you've created.
